

Sea Mar Marysville Family Medicine Residency

2017-2018 First Year Residents

Raymond Aguilar
University of Washington

Ray is from WA and has a degree in Mathematics and Biochemistry. His goals consist of practicing full spectrum Family Medicine including OB at a community health center while serving the Latino community, along with teaching and mentoring.

Zeena Al-Tai
University of Queensland

Zeena is from CA and has a strong interest in women's health, OB and working with the underserved population and refugees. She has traveled to many countries around the world.

Andrea Carnie
University of Maryland

Andrea is from MD has a degree in Music and is an accomplished flutist. She is interested in pursuing her bilingual abilities to work with the underserved and do OB.

Kirstin Hansen
University of Washington

Kirstin is from WA and has plans to work in a smaller community practice doing OB and helping patients with special needs. She previously lived on a boat while in medical school and was a high school varsity soccer coach.

Jessica Lazar
University of Washington

Jessica is from CA and has a passion for service while planning to practice OB in a rural or semi-rural setting and she has a degree in Environmental Sciences.

Leonel Oliveros-Rosen
University of Pennsylvania

Leo is from Mexico and has a passion for working with underserved communities, practicing OB and serving the Latino community. He has a degree in Philosophy.